Letter from the Dalles

Our Dalles correspondent who has just returned from a trip to Canyon City writes as follows (Nov 23d)

INDIANS IN THE JOHN DAY COUNTRY

News by stage to night is somewhat of an important character There have been some depredations committed by Lo! recently on the main John Day river along the South Fork A party of Indians that had for some time been prowling about visited a ranch belonging to a Mr Field and drove off three head of cattle He advised the commander of Camp Watson immediately C J Baker, on receipt of the intelligence, ordered detachment under command of Lieut Barry, to proceed at once to the locality in which it was supposed the enemy had gone They—Lieut Barry's command—found the trail of Lo" going up the South Fork He followed the trail nearly thirty miles up the river and came on the Lords of the forest encamped drying beef They had killed all the cattle stolen, and were preparing themselves with necessary subsistence for the winter While they were in their place of security, as they supposed, the bold Lieutenant made a gallant charge, in which he killed several and wounded several more, destroying all their stores, camp paraphernalia &c The Lieutenant captured three horses, one of which was stolen from the Stage Company a few days before the attack on the Stage Lieut Barney, on his return was ordered off on a scout in the direction of Dixie Creek and Strawberry valley It is hoped he will be as successful in making a rout of Lo" there as on the river Too much praise cannot be awarded to Col Baker and his officers and men, for their efficiency and energy They are the right kind and their efforts and deeds more than substantiate this fact

BUSINESS AT CANYON CITY

Business matters are at a low ebb at Canyon City The approaching winter has had a tendency to cause all the surplus men to seek a warmer climate and also to compel most of the miners to lay over their claims for the winter I only noticed two or six companies at work, all the rest had been closed up for the season I saw your old comrade in "arms," Henry Miller He is mining near Canyon City, has at last "struck it," was one of the fortunates in making a discovery which will result in making him a goodly inheritance for life

CROPS IN JOHN DAY VALLEY

I noticed at the mouth of Canyon Creek a flouring mill which had recently been erected and completed It is owned by two gentlemen by the name of McCullum and Havelton The flour turned out by their mill compares favorably with the best brands of valley flour It is estimated that there was near 150 000 bushels of wheat in the John Day valley and 12 000 bushels of oats and barley this season The success the farmers met with this last season will so encourage them that the next year's crop will be amply sufficient to supply the demand of that country so that they will not be compelled to depend upon the valley west of the Cascades for that branch of sustenance as hitherto has been the case

BUSINESS AT DALLES CITY

Dalles is very quiet, yet filling up with new comers for the winter The principal attraction is Dr McKay's Brigade, war dances &c They hold their levees every night On Monday last a grand entertainment was given, from which they received $50 as admission fee The proceeds I understand were to purchase tobacco with They start in a few days for the Crooked River country It is expected that their headquarters for the winter will be in the Chow a Pass, as that point is the winter pass for Indians running out and in from their hunting excursions

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS

Company "D," 8th Cavalry, leave on the morrow for Walla Walla I understand that quite a number of the company that left the Dalles last week for Camp Watson, have deserted As yet, none have been captured

GENERAL SHERMAN.—A correspondent of the New York Post, who accompanied General Sherman on his Western tour to Colorado, writes from Denver City, October 4th, thus

General Sherman travels in the simple characteristic of the man You remember he started on the Atlanta campaign with a simple tent "fly," and carrying the plainest of mess equipments Equally simple is his "outfit" now When about to leave St Louis, in answer to his servant's question as to his baggage, he said, "Oh, put me up a shirt!" No baggage wagons are allowed in the expedition, each man's personal property being carried in his ambulance. The General had no escort except in the most dangerous part of the Indian region He carries no tent, his ambulance serving as a bedroom, and meats are served under a canvas "fly," stretched from the top of the ambulance to the ground The party travel from thirty to forty miles daily

While General Sherman is eminently genial in social life, and affable to every one, he dislikes presumption and is very apt to put a sudden check on unwarranted familiarity At one of the posts on the road an ill mannered fellow—a wealthy contractor, by the way—pushed into the private quarters where the General sat in after supper chat and insisted on the commanding officer introducing him at once, which being done, he further interrupted the conversation

"Wall, Gin'ral, thought I'd come up and shake hands with you, heard you was passing threu

Sherman quietly looked at the man, who continued as follows

"I want to tell you, Gin'ral, that it's my opinion you ought er station a company of cavalry here"—went on the infatuated man

The General did not move his eyes from him—they began to twinkle

"This yer's an important post yer see You don't know it maybe but you really ought to have cavalry here And I can sell them hay and forage cheaper than any man around"

The man said no more, for in his quick, nervous way Sherman broke out "You'd better go to plowing sir! You'd better go to plowing! I think you are fit for that! What were you saying Colonel?" turning to his neighbor

A GUN INVENTION —T J Cranmer of Vallecito, Calaveras county, is about to exhibit in Stockton a remarkable engine of destruction recently invented by himself It is thus described by the Sonora Democrat

The model is only about thirty inches long, including the barrels, three in number, and yet the rapidity force and accuracy of its firing almost surpasses belief It is said that the gun can be made to discharge no less than three hundred balls per minute [It is quarter size, a full sized gun will discharge twelve hundred balls per minute] It is so simple, also that a child could apparently manage it The whole machinery is encased in a small iron box, and looks as if it could be carried under a man's arm The charges are placed in a sort of hopper like a coffee mill, divided by a tin partition In one side is placed the powder and in the other balls, the hopper containing enough for several rounds The caps are placed in a little sliding arrangement at the side of the gun This being done, all that is required is to turn a small crank and the battery opens its fire with tremendous force and rapidity The cylinder of the model exhibited is six and a half inches long, nine inches in diameter and contains eighty four chambers, resembling the chambers in Colt's six shooter It loads and caps itself and works with all the ease of a revolving pistol The charge of powder required is only about one third the quantity used in other guns

The Butte Record says The contest for the leadership of the Democratic party in California is about equal between the Marysville Express and the San Francisco Examiner When the contest shall be fairly decided, the unsuccessful rival should give up the ghost and the Democracy should load the successful concern into a huge mortar and fire it off The party can never succeed in California while either of those papers are in existence any more than a company of miners can bore a tunnel into a quartz ledge with a boiled carrot

TROUT IN A MARBLE QUARRY —In pumping out an old marble quarry in Rutland Vermont recently, which has neither an outlet nor an inlet several very large speckled trout were taken out, one of which weighed two and a half pounds How these trout got in there "must forever remain a mystery"

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON D C, Oct 22, 1866

It is difficult to understand the President's exceeding anxiety to carry the elections in New York and Maryland which occur week after next It would seem as if the elections which had already occurred had settled the question of supremacy in the Fortieth Congress In fact I have it upon good authority that the President has given up the next Congress as hopelessly anti Johnson Why then does he show so much eagerness in New York and Maryland? I can account for it in but one way He has great fears that Gen Butler's counsel to impeach him will be taken by the next Congress, and he is struggling to carry a third of the next Congress If he can come within three or four of it he has full faith in his power to buy up that number of weak men, and I do not wonder at his confidence for it is generally true that out of two hundred men four or five are weak and untrustworthy Relying upon this general fact, the President is struggling with all his might for a few additional members who agree with him in his policy The defeat of three or four Republicans in as many weak districts, may save the President from impeachment (so he thinks) and therefore he is almost frantically eager over the result

Since my last letter Mr Beecher has made a great speech, supporting the Republican candidates in the State of New York He is now obliged to listen to the fierce criticisms of the Copperheads who recently covered him with praise of the most fulsome description Benj Wood even was so much in love with Beecher, that he was tempted to give up gambling and join Beecher's church! Now he hates the mention of Plymouth Church and even of religion itself Beecher has within four weeks been really abused by all class of political writers Our cordial friends were quite fierce in the denunciation of him a month since, and now Wood, Marble of the World, and fish of that fry, are in the same business

In my last letter I alluded to some scandal afloat respecting the wife of Senator Sprague, who is now in Europe The Providence Journal pronounces the story a falsehood in all its parts, and as the Journal is published in Rhode Island and edited and owned by the Senatorial colleague of Mr Sprague (Mr Anthony), we are bound to believe that the statements are correct It was a terrible story to set afloat, but the Evening Star of this city which is usually careful not to give currency to falsehoods which may affect the character of prominent members of Congress, did not hesitate to publish it nor has it contradicted the statement It is possible that when Mr Sprague returns from Europe he will set his lawyers upon the track of the villain who invented the slanders if not upon anybody else I use the word "villain" upon the supposition that the denial of the Journal is worthy of credence Mr and Mrs Sprague are in Europe, and together—so, the friends of the party state. It is further stated that the story was started by men who hate the father in law of Mr Sprague—that is, Chief Justice Chase

The talk of impeaching the President is subsiding, in spite of the lectures of Wendell Phillips and the robust speeches of Gen Butler, of the West The able editor of the North American Review, Prof Lowell, takes strong grounds against the proposed impeachment, unless the President shall be guilty of something far more than any thing yet proved against him. Mr Haswell, the historical writer of Boston, has an interesting article upon the subject in the Traveler of that city He says

"It is difficult to say whether the President has been guilty of offences that should lead to impeachment He may have been thus guilty or he may not, but on grounds of expediency it would be very unwise to proceed against him by preferring articles of impeachment, even were there but small doubt of his guilt In the first place, there would be a great loss of time If proceeded against the House of Representatives would have to act as promptly and as secretly as the English House of Commons acted in the Long Parliament against the Earl of Stafford. Then would come the discussion of the question of proceeding, and, small as the minority is in the House of Representatives, it is by no means certain that it would not be able to prevent a settlement of the question throughout the next session in which there will be only about seventy six working days, and not above seventy if the usual holidays should be taken No other business could be done during the session, the excitement would be such as to cause congressmen to neglect other business,—and already they are sufficiently neglectful of their duty, without throwing an impeachment bone amongst them, to excite them to madness"

This is a good argument against any attempt to do anything in the present Congress, but it does not apply to the argument of those who urge upon the Fortieth Congress Here is a paragraph, however, which will apply to the whole subject—at one time as well as at another

"The trial might last till the end of Mr Johnson's term, and then terminate in his acquittal, the two-thirds vote necessary to the condemnation of an impeached party always giving him very good chances to escape Indeed, impeachment, though a very solemn thing to talk about and read of is a farce in fact, And if the President were discharged, would not his acquittal be the condemnation of his accusers? They would have triumphed in one sense, for they would have succeeded in getting rid of him before his term had half expired,—and that, we assume, is all that is thought of by those who urge his impeachment They fear the man, and would disable him officially and they would disable him by resort to the impeaching process, which would be effective to that end,—provided he would submit to it. Of this we do not feel assured as he seems to be exactly the sort of man who would be led to act violently were he to anticipate extreme action from his foes The man who has behaved so rashly as to make his impeachment possible, is the man, we think, to provide against impeachment by having resort to violence against those foes, should he be assured they mean to proceed against him by what he would call violent action"

The President is unquestionably quite nervous over the talk of his impeachment, and if driven to the wall will make a very ugly fight of it But I am inclined to think that if he were satisfied that Congress would let him alone he would take to heart the result of the elections, sufficiently at least as to make the last two years of his term endurable When the elections are fully ended we may naturally look for a little more quiet, though the winter will have its due share of excitements, without doubt

ONCE A WEEK.

SEMMES, of the Alabama, is judge of the Probate Court in Mobile, but, for reasons best known to himself, Mr Johnson does not allow him to exercise the functions of that office and large numbers of heirs, afflicted administrators, widows, orphans and other suitors in his court have for many months been suffering most vexatious and harassing delay But a shore life seems to have corrupted and hardened the admiral One would suppose that so soft hearted a person—one who, even as a pirate, is clear of the charge of blood guiltiness and preferred merchants vessels to other antagonists—would be moved by the sight of so much anxiety and misery It is not so, however And therefore seeing the admiral barnacled, as you may say, to the useless court, impeding as he sticks and sticking though he impedes it is no wonder if certain of the Mobilians should whisper s something about resignation The admiral refers such persons to the marines He is out in a card upon the subject To resign, he says would be to affect injuriously "the honor not only of himself but of all his fellow-citizens, and of his proud and suffering State In other words, he is going to draw his salary do no work and apply to the Vandal Government for the coercion of the groans of the poor suitors It is possible that the policy may be as well adapted to the proposed end as the burning of whalers was to securing Southern independence. —The Nation

BLASTING ROCKS WITH NITRO GLYCERINE —The North Adams (Mass) Transcript says that experiments were made lately with nitro glycerine in the heading of the west end of the tunnel with good success Fifteen feet progress was made at that time On the footing three holes were made and blasted which resulted in throwing out rock that took three days to remove—estimated at sixty yards. Electricity is now resorted to instead of fire in setting fire to powder as well as glycerine.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 26, 1866.

No Reaction.

Prediction is easy, and there are those who love to predict a reaction against the Union party. Time and time again has it been predicted that a reaction was setting in against that party which would speedily drive it from power. While elections are pending these prophecies are always largely indulged in; and when the result disproves them, their authors immediately set about making new predictions of what is to happen the next year, or the year following the next. When the Union party was defeated in several States in 1862, it was announced that the re-action was then actually commenced. But it turned out otherwise. The defeats of that year were not the result of a reaction against the radicalism of the Union party. They were simply an admonition to that party that if it wished to live it must move faster, and be more radical in its character and in the measures it advanced. The hint was sufficient; the party profited by it, became more consistently and more thoroughly radical, and has not since met with defeat. It never has been in danger of being overwhelmed by a reaction on account of its radicalism. The only defeat it has ever met was the result of its not being radical enough. That it has not perished by a reactionary movement is conclusive proof that it has not been too radical for the times.

History furnishes innumerable examples of the rapidity with which men and parties can change and do change from extreme to extreme. Men go to an extreme in one direction; a revulsion of feeling occurs, and they are carried to an equal extreme the other way. This propensity of man has afforded satirists and philosophers in all ages a theme for ridicule or moralization. People have often followed party leaders to the farthest verge of folly in one direction, and then reversing their course, have immediately gone in the opposite direction to an equal extreme. They who have been predicting a reaction against the Union party have committed the mistake of believing that that party was so radical in its character that it could not retain the confidence or rely on the support of the people. Hence they predicted its speedy overthrow. Now why have not their anticipations been fulfilled? Why has the Union party grown stronger instead of being destroyed by a reaction? The answer is easy. The party is not so extreme in its measures and purposes as to drive people from its support. There has been no room for a reaction, simply because the party has not gone further in the advocacy of any doctrine than is consistent with reason, with justice, with right. Had it ever gone to the length of folly which its enemies assert, it has reached, it would long ago have ceased to exist. It owes its success to its devotion to principles which are just and right, and which therefore must triumph. That it has become so powerful, and that it is increasing in power continually, is due to its moderation, to the reasonableness of the measures it has advocated, and to the justness of the principles to which it is devoted. Proof that it is not too radical is found in the fact that the reaction which its enemies have predicted would soon set in against it, has never occurred.

The Vancouver Register says that "P. D. Moore, E. Evans, and other prominent Democrats made speeches at the Democratic Convention at Olympia on the 14th inst." This is a very proper classification. The Register says that "the Democrats congratulated Moore on his conversion to the true faith." So it appears that a little Federal office is the man's price; also that another little Federal office is Evans' price. Moore, perhaps, could never expect to get more, and Evans, remembering old scores, takes the first opportunity to get even.

OUR LOCAL DEPARTMENT.—The local department of the OREGONIAN will until further notice, be under the charge of Mr. C. P. Dr. McKay's detachment of Indian scouts, say the Mountaineer, will leave here on Wednesday next for a month's scout up the Des Chutes river, to the old winter ground of Paulina and his band of Snakes. After scouting through Klamath mountains he will cross Crooked river and join Mr. Darragh's detachment, which will leave here in about ten days. The whole command will be rationed for seven months, and if we are not greatly mistaken it will prove to be the most successful expedition that has left Fort Dalles in many years.

The Oregon City Enterprise says: There was entered, under the homestead law, at the Land Office in this city during the month of October five thousand five hundred and twenty-nine and ten one-hundredths acres of land. These comprise thirty-six claims, all of which, with two exceptions, were taken up in the Willamette valley, and within this district, which extends a little to the south of Eugene City. Two claims were located, during that month, east of the Cascade mountains, in what is to be—no opposing "if" in the way—the politicians' New State.

Patrick Brown, tried at Umatilla for the murder of a Frenchman in the Blue mountains last summer, has been convicted and will be hung.

The number of wagons that have crossed the Cascade Mountains by the Barlow road during the present season is 323. The number which crossed last year was 541. Of those which crossed this year 134 belong to immigrants.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 23.

New York City Affairs.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Charges having been made to Gov. Fenton against Chas. G. Cornell, Street Commissioner, and Mathew J. Brennan, Comptroller of New York city, the Governor has appointed James R. Whiting Commissioner, to take testimony in the case of Cornell and John Sedgwick to take testimony in the case of Brennan. The latter waives his right to eight days' notice and desires immediate investigation. He also publishes a letter giving an exposition of his official conduct, and attacks the citizens' association by which the charges were made. It is understood he is not a candidate for re-election in December, and Richard B. Connell will receive the Tammany nomination for Comptroller. The Republicans will probably nominate John W. Farmer, and the Cooper Institute Democrats will probably run Judge Michael Connelly. Attempts are being made to combine the Republican and Union Democrats on Supervisor Elly, Wm. Orton or some other man, but without any prospect of success.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The diplomatic correspondence last year between Seward and Drouyn de l'Huys, on the subject of certain favors shown to Confederates by Maximilian, is published. It appears that our Government became accidentally possessed of letters from Duke Gwin showing that he stood high in the estimation both of the Imperial Mexican and French Governments; that he was about to obtain large tracts of land, and that he soon was to have control of the largest gold mine in the world. These letters were forwarded to our Embassy at Paris, and Minister Bigelow in submitting them to the French Government said: By these letters it appears first, that Dr. Wm. M. Gwin and family, though citizens of the United States, are disloyal to the Government. Second, they are engaged in obtaining from Maximilian, the titular Emperor of Mexico, grants of mineral lands in the States of that Republic, adjoining the United States, and Gwin is to be the chief agent in working their mines. Third, that powerful aid to parties engaged in rebellion is expected. Fourth, that they assure Maximilian and the Emperor of the French that their complicated proceedings will tend at once to encourage Maximilian. Fifth, that they claim to have the patronage of the Emperor of the French with assurances of military aid.

Drouyn de l'Huys answered with considerable sharpness: We shall always be ready, sir, to respond frankly to demands for explanations coming from an allied nation when they are inspired by a conciliatory spirit, presented in an amicable tone and based upon authentic documents or private facts, but I am compelled to say that the Emperor is resolved to reject all interpolations which may come to us in a tone of comment and based on documents of a dubious character.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Stocks opened lower and since the board are higher.

Flour and Wheat Market.

Flour is very dull and 15 to 17 c. lower. Wheat opened 2 or 3c lower and closed rather more steady.

Speech of a New Jersey Senator.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Frederick L. Frelinghuysen, lately appointed Senator in New Jersey vice Wright deceased, made a speech at Newark the other evening, saying he should enter the Senate unpledged by any particular line of action, and would endeavor to promote the interests of the whole country without regard to color. He believed the Republican party is the party of progress, and that the President had grievously erred in not gathering the fruits of the war. He heartily endorsed the constitutional amendment, and should insist upon its adoption by the Southern States. If the South despise our terms, they assume a fearful responsibility, and if they refuse to adopt the amendment the loyalists which compose Congress have power to decide on the qualification of its members, and having that power have also power to decide on the qualification of voters. It is the province of the Republican party to promote the brotherhood of man and it is the purpose of God to elevate the whole race, because the march of Liberty will go forward until the whole race is brought to an elevated condition.

Troops Around Washington.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Herald's Washington special says there are fifteen or twenty thousand troops concentrated in Washington and between that city and Baltimore.

Florida and North Carolina on the Amendment.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Gov. Marvin, of Florida, in a Message to the Legislature, takes ground against the Constitutional Amendment. Gov. Worth's Message to the North Carolina Legislature opposes the Amendment and recommends the Northern States to encourage the settling of negroes in their midst.

Story of an Outrage Contradicted.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The story of the outrage upon the wife of Rev. David A. Wasson of Boston, was false. It appears that a negro intending robbery, locked Mrs. Wasson in a room to prevent her escape but she escaped through a window and the negro was captured.

Alabama U. S. Senator.

The Alabama Legislature has elected ex Governor John A. Winston, U. S. Senator by a majority of four votes over Geo. H. Howston, whose nominal term expires on on the 4th of March.

Alexander Walker, formerly editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, now residing in New Orleans, has recovered a verdict of $2,500 as a fee for saving 2350 bales of cotton for a rebel widow, by his personal influence with rebel authorities who had ordered the cotton burned.

Liberal Donation.

Gov. John Evans, Senator elect from Colorado, yesterday donated $2,500 to the Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, near Chicago. Gov. Evans has proceeded to Washington and feels confident that Colorado will be admitted with Nebraska this winter.

Verdict for Destruction of a Printing Office.

A jury at Newport, Ky., has rendered a verdict giving Wm. L. Bailey $2,500 damages for the destruction of his printing office by a mob, six or seven years ago. Bailey printed and edited the Free South, an Abolition paper.

The indictment for treason against Col. Blanton Duncan, of the late rebel army, has been dismissed by Judge Ballard, of the United States Court at Louisville, because Duncan has received a Presidential pardon.

Gen. Robt. B. Mitchell, Governor of New Mexico, is en route for Washington, to urge the policy of gathering the Indian tribes upon reservations. The Governor brings specimens of great mineral wealth in New Mexico, quartz and gulch gold, silver, lead, copper, platinum, etc.

Commercial Report.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The Post says the recent flurry on the stock exchange has for the present subsided. The losses sustained by unsuspecting operators must have been immense, and the entire losses during the week are estimated at $20,000,000. To give temporary ease in the existing financial pressure Van Dyck has this morning decided that the payment of debts due the U. S. Treasury may be made at the option of the payer in compound notes at their interest. The loan market is heavy and less active. There is evidently a considerable abundance of idle capital, as there has been for a time, and lenders have difficulty in finding a remunerative and satisfactory employment for balances. Wheat and flour are unchanged. Canada wheat quoted at $3 40. Government stocks ¼@1 better.

The Commercial says the panic appears to have spent its force. Money is more freely offered, and large amounts are flowing here from the interior. It seems quite likely the market will go back to the old rates. Dry goods continue steady, but any hour may see further concessions in prices of dry goods. Exchange will hereafter be closed in consequence of the unsatisfactory condition of trade.

The Lynn (Mass.) Reporter mentions four new failures among the shoe manufactories of that city, making nine within the month, and says if the present dullness continues, more will be sure to go.

The Albany Argus says of the cattle trade: We have never known prices to droop so rapidly and heavily as within a few weeks. Losses on beeves passing through this market since the middle of October, most have been $500,000, and on hogs, probably as much more.

Treasury Matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Secretary McCulloch denies that he is converting a larger number of bonds this week than last week, and says there is no cause to apprehend a stringency in the money market, and he will ask Congress to give him power to sell particular kinds of bonds when their price is very high and redeem other classes when the market is low. Following is the correspondence relating to the payment of 5-20 bonds in coin, upon the announcement of which the London Times made its sneer yesterday:

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—To Hon. Hugh McCullough, Secretary of the Treasury—We have good reason for believing that an impression prevails very generally in London and to some extent in Paris and Germany, that the United States Government will avail itself of the option of paying 5-20 bonds of 1862, next year, and that the liquidation will be made in currency. This idea keeps bonds much below the price at which they would sell were it understood that Government regards itself bound to pay in gold. Should you deem it proper to give expression to your views which we could make use of through our European circulars, we have no doubt your opinion would be of much interest to foreign investors.

(Signed,) L. P. NORTON, & Co.

The answer was as follows:

TREASURY DEP'T, Nov. 16, 1866.—Gentlemen—Your favor of the 13th is received. I regard as also did my predecessors all bonds of the U. S. as payable in coin. The bonds that have matured since the suspension of specie payments have been so paid, and there is no doubt the same will be true with these, it being, as I understand, the established policy of the Government. The 5-20 bonds of 1862 will be either called in at the expiration of five years and be paid in coin, or be permitted to run until the Government is prepared to pay them in coin.

(Signed,) HUGH McCULLOCH.

Sale of the Old Bowery Theatre.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The old Bowery Theatre was sold at auction to-day for $100,000. There are mortgages on the property amounting to $110,000.

Canadian Affairs.

Advices from England say the prospects of trouble with the United States renders increased vigilance indispensable on the part of the Canadian authorities, who are actively re-organizing the militia for any sudden emergency. 17,000 stand of improved Enfield rifles have been distributed among the Canadian militia, and militia batteries are being thoroughly drilled and supplied with improved artillery.

Secretary McCulloch on the Crisis.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Secretary McCulloch, in conversation to-day, said the disturbed condition of the New York money market was not in consequence of anything that has been done relating to the financial condition, but of the rumors that the President has decided to abandon his policy to Congress, or at least not to further oppose Congress.

"President" Davis Again.

Parties who have lately visited Jeff Davis report him remarkably cheerful since the recent changes and improvement of his quarters in Carroll Hall and the removal of Mrs. Davis and sister to rooms prepared for them. Davis' health is greatly improved, and he speaks confidently of his speedy release.

Death of a Rebel Naval Officer.

Admiral French, formerly of the U. S. Navy, and late of the rebel navy, died in this city to-day. He was 71 years of age.

Johnson Soldiers Pass a Resolution.

The army and navy men of this city passed a resolution last night by a two-thirds vote declaring that the Constitutional amendment ought to be rejected, but that the Conservative papers of the country should advocate the extension of suffrage to negroes under proper restrictions.

Seward's Organ Praises its Master.

In reply to a question that Secretary Seward was conspiring with Napoleon to trample out the Monroe doctrine, and to effect other analogous purposes, the Times this morning says editorially, when the documents setting forth more recent negotiations concerning Mexican matters come before the country, which they will soon do now, it will be seen that there has been consistency about our diplomacy from beginning to end such as has characterized few negotiations of equally important and prolonged kind. It will be found that the interests and honor of this country and the traditions and sentiments of its people have been most studiously regarded and firmly upheld throughout, and also the just rights of the Republic of Mexico. And to descend to details for the information of all concerned it will be discovered that we have neither acknowledged the claims of the French usurpation nor agreed to assume its debts.

Kentucky Politics.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 20.—The State Convention for Kentucky, is to be held at Frankfort on the 22d February. Leading Copperhead papers of the State have recommended the adoption of an ultra policy.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

Piracy of the Coast of Lower California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The Mexican brig Bosco arrived last night from Commerce Island via Cape St. Lucas, having as passengers Capt. John Burney and others. She was boarded at Cape St. Lucas Oct 23d, while on the way from La Paz to San Francisco, by Col. Gason and two others, armed with pistols, who demanded the captain's papers, at the same time declaring the Cape to be a Mexican port and themselves authorized to search the vessel for articles contraband of war. When he was called upon to produce authority for the seizure of the vessel, he showed the copy of an order purporting to be from Corona, and said that he had left the original on shore. Four more men subsequently joined him, when the captain and passengers were robbed of everything valuable and the vessel plundered. The brig was released next day after giving bonds of ten thousand dollars. The pirates state publicly that it was their intention to remain at the Cape and capture the steamer Sierra Nevada. They number but eleven men, but are as desperate a set of villians as can be mustered together even in Lower California. The names of the pirates so far as could be ascertained are as follows: Gaston, Dartors, Leader, Lewis, Dunk, second in command, Henry Malcom, Chas. Damisky, Chas. Wright alias Terner, George S. Hields, Joseph Powears, Arthur Mills, and two others unknown. All of them have lived in California and are known to be blacklegs and desperadoes. The party started from Altata with the intention of capturing the Continental, but the vessel not going to Guaymas passed the Cape on her return two days previous to their arrival, thus possibly eluding the fate of the John L. Stephens. Col. Dartors is now in this city and denies the above report.

It is proposed to amend the municipal order regulating the closing the liquor saloons in which pretty waiter girls are employed so as to permit the business to be continued until two in the morning instead of midnight as in the original order.

Captain Reuben Thomas, master of the whaling bark Cowsville, was sentenced on Monday by Judge Hoffman, of the District Court to pay $200 for beating a man named Bryson, one of his crew. Fine and costs amounting to $400 was paid.

Benoni Lancol commenced suit in the Fourth District Court yesterday against David Kees, to recover $10,000 damages for alleged malicious prosecution.

Kennovan has been removed to the hospital. He is not expected to live.

Rosa Celesto was easier last evening, but to-day she is suffering from internal injuries, and there is little hope of recovery.

The body of a man who died at the county hospital, has been identified as that of W. H. Washburn, a carpenter and native of Massachusetts.

Information was received by the police this morning that a young man 24 years of age, named Henry Wells Grinnell, committed suicide, and gave out that he was a nephew of Moses Grinnell, a well known ship owner. He came here from China two months ago, lived very fast, soon found himself in debt, tried to leave for the East steamer before last, but was stopped. The pressure of circumstances caused him to commit suicide.

In clearing away the ruins of the buildings destroyed by fire on Sunday, the charred remains of a child two years of age were found.

The next mail steamer sails for Panama on the 30th, the 29th being Thanksgiving. The merchants will make the 28th steamer day.

MAXIMILIAN has skedaddled from Mexico, but KOHN & FISHEL at the ST. LOUIS CLOTHING STORE still continue to receive by every steamer direct from manufacturers, New and Fashionable Clothing, which they sell at strictly San Francisco prices.

A Celestial Beau Brummel.—Our Chinese population is rapidly [illegible] ing to the level of Americanism in some particulars. So far as our information goes, they have not [illegible] the use of chopsticks or the practice of [illegible] and last year's bird's nests; but a good many [illegible] have eschewed nankeen breeches and adopted [illegible] a la mode; not a few patronize the barber [illegible] an ambitious and recklessly invests [illegible] in premium boots, and on the principle [illegible] getting the greatest amount of leather possible for a [illegible] which used to be the Chinese rule; the China [illegible] is learning the advantage of advertising himself as [illegible] late of His most Magnific Serene Highness [illegible] of medical jugglers; Celestial bummers have [illegible] to the dignity of making little speeches to our police [illegible] in response to the Recorder's treat, "guilty or not guilty," and not a few of them have succeeded in effecting [illegible] lodgment of themselves in the city jail where they [illegible] cold water and grub, kindly furnished [illegible] tax-paying white population; Celestial desperadoes [illegible] in the laudable ambition of being [illegible] by an American jury, tried by American "peers" [illegible] by an American Sheriff, for the indiscretion of [illegible] off, prematurely, the wind of a Celestial [illegible]. But all this is not exactly what we set out to say. [illegible] going to say something about Celestial advancement [illegible] style, or, perhaps, more correctly, dandyism. In a recent legal investigation [illegible] one of the principal figures—not the criminal, nor the [illegible] jury, bar, sheriff or posse comitatus—was an [illegible] Celestial, trigged out in fashionable [illegible] claw-hammer, however); pants of faultless [illegible] boots with heels under the hollow of the foot, regu[illegible] and polished evidently with Mason's number [illegible] on his breast, and whopperame on his back [illegible] of "Dr. Ward's shirts," done up in super-elegant [illegible] with adjustable and reversible wrist bands and [illegible] but the crowning glory of this Celestial [illegible] silk "plug," and a highly polished [illegible] stick. Imagine a swarthy, moon-eyed little fellow [illegible] up town with an air which [illegible] as ever print said a word, "Chi mong, [illegible] ding choo, See Fan." If Dr. See Fan does [illegible] the capacity of the Celestial Flowerets for [illegible] themselves to the demands of Society, he has at [illegible] the plaudits of many observers for the last [illegible] has furnished us an item.

[illegible] for the Winter.—The Clackamas Base Ball [illegible] adjourned over to the 6th day of May [illegible]. The Enterprise says: "A feeling of exceeding [illegible] was manifested on account of the inability of the [illegible] to play the proposed return match at Portland, [illegible] Pioneers of that city. The boys were in fine [illegible] weeks ago to-day to perform the feat with credit [illegible] and, in fact, have been prepared on several [illegible] since, to go and meet the Pioneer Club, but [illegible] has each time interposed to render them [illegible]. The organization was kept up longer [illegible] would have been, merely to close that [illegible] having done all that was in their power, [illegible] the match must remain in prospect. The [illegible] will be renewed with increased vigor next [illegible] and we understand that a club will also be organized [illegible] early in the spring, thus giving this State [illegible] Ball fields for contestants."

[illegible] Paper.—The Oregon City Enterprise has [illegible] that a company with a cash capital of [illegible] organizing at Portland, for the manufacture of paper from cottonwood. We have no information [illegible] the movement alluded to, and doubt its [illegible]. The cottonwood of this State has fibre [illegible] to that of the basswood of the [illegible], both as to quantity and quality. There are, however, [illegible] growths in Oregon, of which coarse [illegible], and those, together with cottonwood [illegible] furnish an amount of material sufficient to justify [illegible]. A mixture of the Oregon woolly fibres [illegible] and other paper staples may, and doubtless [illegible] and profitable.

[illegible] Fair.—A brief call upon the Catholic [illegible] Saturday evening, ended in a confession on our [illegible] the fact of being [illegible] at the extent of the [illegible], the artistic decorations and the [illegible] of the hall, and the [illegible] which appeared [illegible] plainly written upon everybody and everything. [illegible] shortly confessed, also, to being surprised into [illegible] of coin, though nobody else seemed at all [illegible]—everybody else present having been [illegible] in that way before we got there. The evening [illegible] extremely inclement one, but, notwithstanding, [illegible] a very fair attendance, and all the visitors appeared highly pleased. The rooms will be opened to-day [illegible] and the fair will continue each day and evening [illegible] inclusive.

[illegible]—Among the multitude of beautiful things at the Catholic Fair, is a fine crayon sketch entitled "[illegible] of the waters"—the work of one of the Sisters of Charity. The design is so accurate in proportion, and perspective and so delicate in lights and shades that a connoisseur might easily [illegible] it for an [illegible]. There is also another beautiful picture in [illegible] by a student at the Sister's school in this city, entitled "The Dunkeld." The lovers of the artistic and [illegible] will not fail to feel themselves repaid for a visit [illegible] by a sight of these pictures, even if they [illegible] note of the many other beautiful things on [illegible].

[illegible] Shot.—Joseph Kolitz, who lives near [illegible], south of Portland, while out hunting [illegible] accidentally shot himself [illegible]. He had landed from a skiff, which he [illegible], and then turning took hold of his gun—a Springfield rifled [illegible]—which lay in the skiff, [illegible] toward him. [illegible] it, the hammer caught and discharged the piece, [illegible] the charge of shot in the man's right breast, breaking one rib and passing into or through the right lobe of [illegible] lungs. Dr. Giltner was called to see him, and did [illegible] he could to relieve him, but it is hardly probable [illegible] he can recover.

[illegible].—First Lieutenant Pepoon, late of the Oregon [illegible], is in town. Lieut. P. has probably seen more [illegible] hard and useful service against the Indians than [illegible] officer connected with the late Oregon or [illegible] Territory regiments. It is rumored that [illegible] and Capt. White will soon start for Washington. [illegible] of the same company, with [illegible] White and Lieut. Pepoon, has returned to his former home in Marion county.

[illegible] Services.—Thanksgiving services will [illegible] be held at the M. E. Church on Thursday at 10:30 A. M., [illegible] meeting will be held in the [illegible]. Rev. C. C. Stratton will officiate.

At the Synagogue Beth Israel, services will be held at half past ten, in the morning. Rev. Dr. Schwabe, late [illegible] of Germany will deliver a lecture.

At the [illegible] Church there will be morning service at half past ten o'clock.

[illegible] will also be held at the Congregational Church at the usual morning hour.

[illegible] Court.—Before Hoffman, Judge, on Saturday.—James McLothlin was arraigned on a charge of being drunk and disorderly at the Mt. Hood saloon—pleaded guilty and fined $5.....George [illegible], charged under city ordinance with disorderly conduct—pleaded guilty and fined $20 and costs. The charge against him of assault with deadly weapon will be heard this morning.....John Dowley, charged with being drunk and lying on the sidewalk, on Front street, pleaded guilty—fined $5 and costs, and in default was sent to jail an additional day, having already been one day in confinement.

A Weather Sign.—We are informed by men who follow the dangerous practice of going "down to the sea in [illegible]" that gulls and other sea-birds migrate to the interior, up the rivers, [illegible] foul weather on the outside, and return to the seaboard again when the weather [illegible]. The great number of such birds here [illegible] the continuance of the storms that have [illegible] for a week or more.

[illegible] Company No. 5.—This company which [illegible] admission to the Fire Department, [illegible] information from the Seneca Falls iron works, [illegible] that an engine will be shipped to them in a [illegible], pursuant to the company's order. This company is determined to be a live one whether in or out of the [illegible] to it and better luck when it again [illegible].

[illegible] Cheap.—Our Local cotemporary of the [illegible] about fifty young bloods" have been summoned before the Grand Jury to testify as to what they [illegible] of houses of bad repute. The exact statement would have been, about fifty young bloods, middle aged [illegible] and old bloods. We understand that the affair has stirred up considerable bad blood, both old and young.

[illegible] Court at Oregon City.—J. M. Moore, Justice of the Peace for Oregon City precinct, last week held D. [illegible] in the sum of $2,000, to answer to a charge of perjury [illegible] by false swearing in relation to taxes. [illegible] was fined $30 and costs, for assault and battery, and held in the sum of $250, to keep the peace with the people generally, and Thomas [illegible] in particular.

[illegible] Court—Shattuck Judge.—The proceedings in the Court on Saturday were as follows: State of Oregon vs. Ah Shung and Lee Fan, indicted for being [illegible] of Ah Foy—evidence closed and the case [illegible] to the jury.....State of Oregon vs. Jas. Lana[illegible], indicted for keeping open tippling house for traffic [illegible] and pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

[illegible] Bar.—Twenty-four feet of water on this [illegible], and where the dredger has been at work, [illegible] will be not less than eighteen feet at low water, [illegible] Superintendent Walker is still prosecuting the work [illegible], under many difficulties. The new hoisting [illegible] in place during the last week, is said to fully [illegible].

[illegible] Freight.—The Senator on Saturday brought down 16 boxes tobacco, 118 gunnies bacon, 10 [illegible] butter, 10 packages eggs, 31 half barrels lard, 130 boxes apples, 4 coops chickens, 16 bedsteads, 20 half barrels butter, 75 half barrels dried apples and a lot of [illegible].

[illegible] Saturday evening an excited visitor related to our office that a rumor was floating about that the Oriflamme was lost. The rumor started in town and was without foundation, as no news whatever had come over the lines. The Oriflamme went to sea on Wednesday and is probably now safely at her wharf in San Francisco.

[illegible]—The Couch from Astoria, Saturday, informs us that the Montana and Pacific were lying at Astoria, ready to go to sea as soon as the weather would permit. There was a strong South-east wind prevailing and the weather was decidedly foul.

[illegible] Rough.—The steamer Oriflamme, which crossed the bar last Wednesday morning, arrived at San Francisco Saturday evening, having been four days out. The strong head wind prevailing during the whole week, was doubtless the cause of the slow time made.

Correction.—In our Council proceedings on Friday morning, the types made the Reporter say, "the Council adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock." The time of meeting should have been Monday evening, at 7 o'clock.

The Falkinburg.—This bark was reported by the Couch to be still at Astoria, Saturday morning awaiting an improvement in the weather before venturing out. Her crew is full.

Not Guilty.—The jury in the case of Ah Shung and Lee Fan, indicted in the Circuit Court as accessories to the murder of Ah Foy, returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Change of Time.—Travelers will be gratified to learn that the P. T. Co.'s boats for Oregon City, will hereafter leave here at 7 o'clock A. M., instead of 6, as heretofore.

To be Let.—Contractors will remember that the contract for filling the ravine at the junction of Jefferson with Front street, is to be let to-day.

Barman Bros., have on hand all sizes of Morrison, Harris & Co.'s Star Brand Shirts and Collars, manufactured at Norwalk, Connecticut.

DR. J. R. CARDWELL,
Having lately returned from San Francisco, would inform his friends and the public generally that he is now prepared to meet the demands for DENTAL WORK. Consumption like the Rattle-Snake, always gives warning of its approach. A hacking cough, dull pains in the chest, difficulty of breathing, are the indications that there is more or less irritation of the Lungs. If this be neglected, and go on until pustules are formed, followed by tubercles, which sometimes eat off the blood vessels, Death will be the result. ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will heal all the irritated parts, allay the inflammation, removing the phlegm and matter. Thus stopping the cough and prevent fatal Consumption. For sale by all Medicine Dealers.

Old Settlers!

BEWARE OF THE RAG-TAKERS, when property is not safe on Block Thirty-seven, between Fifth and Sixth streets, with a good fence six feet high around it. The house that I built in 1851 stands on that Block. The Rag-Takers went in and carried away such things as suited their convenience on Saturday, the 17th November, 1866. After their search of the house and barn there were missing eight pulu pillows, one iron teakettle, one tin teakettle, one skillet, two large dripping pans, blankets, clothing and rags. On Monday, the 19th, I got out a search warrant to search Winehart's Old Brewery. In the search found two pulu pillows on their beds, iron teakettle on their stove, skillet and one dripping pan with their stove furniture. These things and the Rag-Takers were taken to the Recorder's Court by Ward. The evidence taken was what a Splinter of the Law said—calling the house an old shanty, and the things taken nothing but rags, and other language as low as the things his clients took.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increase. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

FROM IDAHO

We have received the first number of the Idaho Bulletin, an intensely Democratic sheet just started at Silver City, Owyhee. We extract the following news items:

INDIAN ATTACK ON HUMBOLDT STAGE

On the morning of the 9th inst., about 4 miles beyond the Owyhee station about thirty Indians attacked the Humboldt stage killed one man a Mr Wilcox who had been freighting from [illegible] to this place and wounded another man name not learned, killed one horse and wounded two. The driver and passengers succeeded in making their escape carrying off the wounded man with the remaining horses. The Indians did much injury to the stage, also cut the ends of the mail bags and scattered and destroyed the letters.

INDIAN RAID

On the night of the 12th inst., the Indians made a raid in the neighborhood of the lower Boise and Owyhee ferry, driving off thirteen head of horses. Did not learn whose stock it was. We understand that Mr James Bernard has gone to Camp Lyons to get the soldiers to try and cut the Indians off at the crossing of the Owyhee.

MILL IN FLINT.

Mr W L Greenwell has moved the Morse & Vass Mill from this place to Flint district, where he is putting it up and will, in a few weeks, commence crushing rock from the Rising Star lode.

MOUNTAINEER TUNNELING COMPANY

This enterprising company are running a tunnel into the mountain east of Long Gulch. The work is going on at a rapid rate. Two shifts of hands are pushing it through the mountain with high hopes of a good thing having, already, passed through two lodes one of which is thought to be good, it is about 2½ feet wide. Some of the rock has been tried by hand process and prospects well, yet the company look ahead for a much better thing, and continue to drive the tunnel along. The tunnel is over 250 feet in length.

MORNING STAR MILL

This pioneer mill is again in operation, under the supervision of Messrs Burnham & Jackson. It is crushing rock from the Vulcan (north extension of the Silver Cord). About two hundred tons of rock is out, and hands will be kept at work on the ledge, and if the rock pays as well as anticipated, the mill will be kept in operation, with Messrs Waters and Griffin at the wheel.

The following is from the Boise Statesman of the 17th inst.

A BOGUS DUST OPERATOR IN LIMBO.

We are in receipt of information from Idaho City that Thomas G Murphy, better known as Captain Murphy, was arrested there last Wednesday charged with passing bogus dust, and that at the time of his arrest he had one hundred and fifty ounces of the article upon his person. The movements of the "Captain" have been a long time unaccountable, and the suspicion that his last two or three visits from Owyhee to Idaho City were in some way connected with the bogus business, caused him to be closely watched, and led to his detection and arrest.

AN OLD FRIEND WRITING A HISTORY.

Our old friend, H N. Maguire, is now busily engaged in writing a book, to be entitled "Explorations and Settlements in the Rocky Mountains—Incidents in the Times of Pioneers—Mineral and Agricultural Resources—The Vigilance Committee and its Victims," etc. All acquainted with "Mac" will readily concede that he has the ability to write a work which will rank with the standard literature of the country; applications and facts are all he needs. As we understand one of the most reliable and scientific men of Montana is interested with him, we have no doubt of the success of the undertaking. The forthcoming work will be two volumes in one binding, the whole comprising from five to six hundred pages. It will be substantially bound, and handsomely embellished, some of the engravings to be steel. Besides being a complete historical record it will contain itineraries of the different routes to the mines from east and west, and much valuable statistical matter. The lively interest felt at the present time, and which will surely be intensified in the immediate future, in all parts of the country, in Idaho and Montana, insures an immense sale, it seems to us, for the work, and we hope and believe "Mack" will make a fortune out of his share in the enterprise. Manuscripts will be sent East as soon as revised, and the book will reach Montana and Idaho sometime between next June and August.

The subjoined is from the Idaho City [illegible] of the 16th inst.

MATHEWSON AND ESTELLE LODES.

We visited these lodges on Tuesday last, in company with several of our citizens. On several occasions we have noticed these lodges as being located on Willow Creek, about four miles from this city. We found them, as was represented, running north and south and about a half mile apart. The Estelle shows a width of from three to twelve feet. Several cuts have been run to it at the point of discovery and at the point where it crosses Willow creek. The ore looks well and yields from $100 upwards per ton, according to assay tests. The work has been performed and proven up according to law. The Mathewson has also been represented according to law. One shaft about sixty feet in depth shows a well defined ledge of about sixteen feet in width. The ore is of a similar character as that of the Estelle. The placer claims on Willow Creek have been worked out, and yielded handsome profits to the locators. They inform us that the largest amount of gold was procured below these ledges. Mr Harvey, the discoverer and locator of the above ledges, has done himself credit in the manner in which he has represented them with substantial cuts and shafts, which will aid materially in the further development of the mine. These ledges are traceable for a long distance beyond the first extensions, which are now being prepared for the market. We understand they are to be forwarded to Messrs. Hussey & Hopkins, New York City, who negotiated for the discovery claims several months ago.

COUNTERFEIT GOLD DUST.

A big haul of Owyhee battery was made near Idaho City on Wednesday last, by officer Wilson. The party is awaiting an examination. We withhold names until after he has a chance to show cause. We had a peep at the Owyhee currency yesterday morning; it somewhat resembles New Orleans sugar. We would like for the editor of the Avalanche and that committee on the reduction of Boise dust, to come over and feast their eyes, there is only about 200 ounces of it. That's all our officers have as yet got their hands on, they are after those that deal in the article.

THE PROFIT OF REBELLION.—A little business in the Court-house led me to inquire into the financial condition of this portion of the country, and I learn that Sheriff's sales are becoming so common that almost no purchasers are found for the valuable land and other property exposed for sale. A gentleman informed me that some twenty farmers had been sold out lately, their lands bringing less than one dollar per acre. A sad instance of the reverse of fortune produced by the war was mentioned in the case of old Mr. Prewett, of this county, whose estate was sold out on the first Monday in this month. At the breaking out of the war he was the wealthiest citizen of Tuscaloosa county. He owned three hundred and sixty slaves and large tracts of land. He had large sums of money out at interest, secured by mortgage on negro property and land. He was a homespun, economical countryman, who bought everything at the lowest price for cash. He paid his physician's bills before the doctor left the house. When General Croxton came to Tuscaloosa he took from the old man some forty head of horses and mules, all his money, provisions, &c, which was his first calamity. Next came emancipation, which swept his slave property. Next came the breaking up of all the men to whom Prewett had loaned money or for whom he had stood security. Finally an execution was levied against his property for a few thousand dollars, and all his real estate was sold under the Sheriff's hammer for $600.—Selma (Ala.) Messenger.

AN IMPORTANT TRIAL.—A trial is about to take place in England destined to be ranked with the most celebrated "causes" of modern times. We allude (says the New York Tribune) to the measures which are being adopted by the Jamaica Committee to bring ex Governor Eyre to the bar of his country to answer for causing Geo. Wm. Gordon and others to be illegally put to death during the late reign of terror in the Island of Jamaica. The verdict in the case will be of immense importance. Englishmen are wont to boast that British law throws its protection equally around all the subjects of the Empire, without regard to creed, color, or rank. The result of Eyre's trial will show whether the life of the colored man is indeed as sacred in the eyes of that law as the life of him of the white skin. It will be seen that eminent counsel have been engaged to conduct the prosecution of the ex Governor.

Postmaster General Randall has removed from the Postoffice at Benton, Lafayette county, Wisconsin, the widow of Mark Richards, who was killed by Copperheads while in the discharge of his duties as enrolling officer, and appointed in the place Tom Duffey, a deserter—a man who was drafted and ran away.

WANTS THE REASON?—Why do birds in their little nests agree? Because they'd fall out if they didn't.—Punch.

FROM WASHINGTON TERRITORY

The following is taken from the Vancouver Register of Saturday.

THE LATE ROBBERY

The following are the particulars of the arrest and trial of Ennest and Colborne for the larceny of hides and tallow belonging to Mr Steggart of this place. On Sunday, the 11th inst, Mr Ramsey informed Mr Steggart that he (Ramsey) had found some hides and sheep skins on Diamond Island, at the mouth of the Willamette which had been stolen by Ennest.

Upon examining about Mr Steggart's slaughterhouse, it was found that the fence had been broken and the hides and sheepskins had been dragged through the fence leaving hair and wool on the fence.

The Sheriff accompanied by Messrs Short and Ramsey then went to the Island and at the place pointed out by Ramsey they found eight beef hides and fifty nine sheepskins, the sheepskins being closely packed up covered with the hides.

Leaving them just as they found them they proceeded to the shanty occupied by Ennest and there found a lot of rope cut into pieces of about two feet in length, also about twenty five gunny sacks, some women's underclothing, men's shirts, caps, coats &c &c some of which were wet, and had the appearance of having been recently taken from a clothes line. On Monday evening the Sheriff, and Messrs Ramsey and Inglehart proceeded to the Island and found Ennest and Colborne engaged in tying up the sheepskins, &c preparatory to removing them. They were both arrested and examined before Justice Tubbs, who bound them over—Ennest in the sum of $500 and Colborne in the sum of $300 for their appearance at the next term of the District Court. In default of bail, they were both committed to jail. There is no doubt that the Island had been used as a hiding place for stolen property. We congratulate our citizens that it has been effectually broken up.

POLITICAL

Olympia is the great Mecca of political pilgrims. Already the cauldron has commenced simmering, but it is hard to conjecture the result, after the broth is boiled down. Among the candidates for Delegate in the Union party Hon A A Denny is spoken of for renomination. He has faithfully served some interests on the Sound and if he had equally attended to the interests in other sections, he would be hard to beat. As it is his nomination is somewhat doubtful. Among the Democrats Hon Frank Clark is considered a very prominent candidate. Judge McFadden refuses to have his name used in that connection. E Evans and other Democrats of lesser note are spoken of, but will not succeed.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY FINANCES

The Territorial Treasury is strapped—completely cleaned out. The various appropriations to explore and improve roads and highways made by the last Legislature and the reduction of Territorial taxes have caused this depletion. It is high time that some law should be enacted providing for the funding of the Territorial and county indebtedness and levying an adequate tax to pay in money and not in scrip for all services rendered. When people get paid in paper worth fifty cents on the dollar, they naturally charge twice as much for their services than they would if paid in money.

MISCELLANEOUS

It is reported that W H Waterman, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, has been superseded by Thomas J McKinney, of Iowa. This news is doubted by some, no other information having been received, except the announcement in the New York Herald.

H. M McGill has also been removed as Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue, and Hon F A Clark appointed in his place. Mr Clark is from Pierce county, a Radical, and also a member of the Legislature.

Many of our readers at Vancouver will regret to learn that Lieut Knox, for a long time stationed at Vancouver, was at last accounts lying mortally and hopelessly ill at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He had been ordered with his regiment to Omaha, Nebraska, and was on his way there, when he sank so rapidly that he could not proceed further. This news was communicated by his wife to his father at Olympia.

Hon W. C Johnson is now here (Olympia) taking testimony for the United States in the matter of the controversy with the Hudson's Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Company. Frank Clark is counsel for the Companies. They will take testimony in Vancouver next week. Mr Johnson is confident that he will be able to show that the claims of the Companies upon the United States are exorbitant and that lands valued by them at $20 per acre are really not worth more than from $3 to $5, and so with the improvements made upon the lands.

A BIG BUSINESS.—At the annual meeting of the New York Clearing house recently, it was stated that its transactions last year amount to $29 783,282 020 44, or nearly thirty thousand million dollars. This was $17,624,024,722 greater than the yearly average since it was established. The transactions for the thirteen years of its existence foot up $158 070,344 871 32 or one hundred and fifty eight thousand million dollars. It is a volume of business sixty times greater than the entire national debt. All this immense business has been done through the ordinary machinery of the Clearing house without the error or the loss to the Association of a single dollar.

SOMETHING NEW! THE NEW LIGHT! DANFORD'S Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIVERSAL necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a Lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided. It is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps, it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper light ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrene, corner of Morrison and First streets.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, dotted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing that they are curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of [illegible] physicians from Europe and other places. Be [illegible] strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.
